KING'S SCHOOL

ROCHESTER

Thank you and your family, for all you have contributed to the King's School Rochester community, during your time as pupils and parents. When you leave as a parent in July, we would like to keep you updated on our achievements, and our various events, through emails and our website myksr.org.uk, please let me know if this is a concern.

We are proud of the School of today and our history, since 604AD, when King's School started educating people in Rochester and Medway. We wish the members of our community to be happy and fulfilled, and our purpose as a school is to offer an outstanding all-round education that enables each individual to flourish. These fundamentals are driving us to develop the School in an ever-changing world.

To continue achieving our targets, we have created the Roffensian Foundation to raise additional funds from our past pupils, parents, and friends for two parallel objectives.

- Foundation Awards – We want to offer additional bursaries, allowing secondary school pupils to join us and benefit from an education that would not necessarily be available to them.
- Inspirational Facilities – We want to evolve our buildings to ensure our pupils and partners in the local community are using sustainable, contemporary facilities that meet the requirements for cutting-edge 21st-century education.

As the parents of a forthcoming leaver, I would like to ask you, to donate the £500 deposit you paid at the start of your child's journey at King's, to the Roffensian Foundation Bursary Awards scheme. Such a donation will allow a member of our local community, to benefit and flourish from a King's Rochester education. Aidon Hook, who left last year, was a beneficiary of this scheme

I found the emphasis this School places on the balance between academia and co-curricular activities is what makes this School so unique. Receiving the privilege of becoming Head Boy, after only one year, serves as a testament to the fact that all people, from different walks of life, can join King's and make the absolute most of it.

I hope you agree to this proposal by completing and returning the attached form to me. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me.
